Main subject of call Dead Creek

Items discussed I asked John the status of the hydrogeologic survey that the IEPA was preparing along with recommendations for remedial action. John said that the completion date was now projected to be ~~late~~ early April. I explained to John that we need to develop an emergency action plan and suggested a conference between myself, John and the group preparing the study on March 30. John said he would set it up if the report is not available by then.
